Application of Hebrews 10:24-25

1. Does “consider” mean glance at, distractedly look at, or intentional thought? In what way can you “consider” others as it relates to ‘stirring one another to love and good works?’
2. What does the word “annoy, stir up, provoke” mean in the context of this passage? Ask God to help you love Him and others more so that out of sincere consideration for others you will naturally act in this manner toward other believers.
3. What gifts and opportunities may you have to best stir up others to love and good works e.g. hospitality in your home, words of encouragement, serve others as an example, prayer?
4. Are you prepared for and willing for people to stir you up to love and good works? Are you prepared to give/receive honest but loving correction? There is a definite amount of humility that we need to accept this type of behaviour in our personal lives. Repent of pride God may convict you with and ask Him to cultivate humility in your life so that you would willing receive “annoying” input.
5. Based on this passage, if someone asks you, “do Christians need to go to Church?” what would you say?
6. Does the idea of not neglecting to meet together mean simply attending church? Why/why not?
7. What does the word “encourage” mean? How could you encourage someone this week?

Reading this week: Read, think about and prayer about Heb 10:19-25 each day this week in order to respond to the great news of salvation and the call to live this out. Also, I plan on preaching Colossians 1:28-29 next week.
