Yahweh's Revelation is Corrective (v. 4)

Application of Habakkuk 2:2-4

1. Reflect on the gracious and astounding truth that God has stepped down to our level (condescended) and chosen to reveal His Word to us! We aren't deserving and He's not under any obligation, but He has spoken to us through Scripture.
2. In what way has God made clear His revelation of Himself to all people and how should we respond (see Rom 1:18-20)?
 - a. What comfort can we take in the character of God as we recognize He's graciously revealed Himself to all humanity of all time?
3. You may choose to study the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture which describes the clarity of God's Word for people to understand, while recognizing the riches of the depth of Scripture and certain challenges to understand every detail.
4. Because God cannot lie (Num 23:19), what does this mean about the certainty of His Word?
 - a. Consider what God has revealed about the future and take comfort and confidence in the certainty of such events.
5. Reflect on the sovereignty of God as it relates to His perfect timing and His divine appointments. God will not delay!
 - a. How does your inability to predict your timing for anything elevate your view of God's perfect and appointed timing?
6. In what way does Yahweh correct Habakkuk's misunderstanding of who the wicked (i.e. proud) and righteous are?
 - a. How does this subtle correction apply to a gospel of works today?
7. Reflect on other verses related to the life-changing and powerful truth of justification by faith (e.g. Gen 15:6; Rom 3:21-5:1; 2 Cor 5:21; Gal 2:15-3:29; Eph 2:1-9; Titus 3:3-7).
