

Habakkuk 2:20

Behold Yahweh!

Yahweh's Position (v. 20a)

Your Response (v. 20b)

Application of Habakkuk 2:20

1. How does knowing who God is and what He's done impact every aspect of your life?
  - a. How does this prompt you to study who God is and seek to understand God more through any reading of Scripture?
2. What are some of lies accepted today in society, in the church, in your life that lead you/people away from Christ to seek a counterfeit blessing?
  - a. What are the things you're seeking from idols that you need to repent of and replace with biblical truth?
3. Look at passages that describe the contrast between Yahweh and false gods and consider the greatness of Yahweh above all else (e.g. Deut 4:33-39; 1 Kings 18:17-40; Ps 115; Is 40:9-31; 44:1-20; Jer 10:1-16; Hos 13:1-4; 1 Cor 8:4)
4. Reflect on Yahweh's position as the enthroned king of all the earth (e.g. Ps 2:4; 11:4; 103:19; 115:3; 123:1; Is 6:1-5; Dan 4:37) and think on the significance of such truth for you personally and for the whole earth
5. In what way(s) will the unrighteous be silent before Yahweh?
6. In what way should the righteous be silent before Yahweh? How can embracing Yahweh's position in His holy temple comfort you when:
  - a. you're stressed, worried, & fearful about life and the future?
  - b. you're so focused on "doing" things (even if they're good)?
  - c. you (like Job and Habakkuk) have questions and doubts about or for God?
  - d. you're tempted to pursue a lie from the devil?
7. Meditate on Col 3:1-5 as we see the principle of looking up to the Lord enables us ("therefore" at the start of v. 5) to consider the old self as dead.
8. Memorise a verse to remind you Yahweh is enthroned above!
